

3. I would rather build my future rotation around Pitcher A. Pitcher A has faster pitches than Pitcher B, and has smaller speed variations especially in Curveballs and four-seam fastballs, meaning Pitcher A has better control over his Curveball and four-seam fastball. In addition, Pitcher A has more horizontal control and vertical break with his curveball, and is able to utilize his slider outside the strike zone better than pitcher B.